ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Welcome to the World Conference on Climate Change & Sustainability (WCCCS-2026) Organized by: Scienceplus in Collaboration with IRAJ (Institute Of Research and Journals) during 9th and 10th May 2026 at Dubai, UAE. Join us for a vibrant exchange of ideas and insights at the forefront of multidisciplinary educational research. Engage with esteemed scholars, researchers, and practitioners as we explore innovative approaches and current trends shaping the landscape of education across diverse disciplines. Together, let's delve into transformative research that inspires and redefines the future of learning.

PURPOSE OF WCCCS-2026

The primary purpose of the World Conference on Climate Change & Sustainability (WCCCS-2026) scheduled during 9th and 10th May 2026 at Dubai, UAE, is to foster collaboration and action on climate change and sustainable development. It aims to address interconnected challenges like climate change, inequality, biodiversity loss, and financial instability through bold, coordinated efforts. This conference provides a platform for researchers, students, and professors to discuss climate governance, reduce emissions, and promote sustainable solutions.
